ПРЕДИСЛОВИЕ

В VI часть «Антологии литературы для баяна» включены произведения советских композиторов, написанные в 60-е — начале 70-х годов. В определенной степени этот период в баянном искусстве можно назвать переходным: с одной стороны новизна образного строя потребовала от композиторов новой интонационной сферы и, соответственно, новых художественных средств выразительности готово-выборного баяна; с другой же стороны — на средства традиционного баяна с готовыми аккордами в левой клавиатуре еще в значительной степени продолжали опираться многие известные композиторы, плодотворно работавшие в этой области музыкального искусства.

Наряду с произведениями, написанными на основе собственного тематического материала представленных в томе авторов, в него вошли лучшие образцы транскрипций известного педагога-баяниста И. Яшкевича. Данные транскрипции приобрели широкую популярность в силу ряда причин. Во-первых, благодаря высоким художественным достоинствам и блестящему техническому воплощению выразительного мелоса музыки С. В. Рахманинова и И. Штрауса; во-вторых, благодаря значительному обогащению этого мелоса транскриптором за счет разнообразной полифонической ткани, интересных фактурных находок, богатства фантазии в орнаментах пассажной техники.

Все сочинения, вошедшие в настоящий том, сыграли и продолжают играть большую роль в становлении технического мастерства, в формировании разностороннего художественного вкуса, углубленного мышления баянистов. Являясь неотъемлемой частью концертного и педагогического репертуара, они, вместе с тем, активно используются и в конкурсной практике, а некоторые из них были написаны специально для различных конкурсов в качестве обязательных произведений.

Приведем основные сведения об авторах, представленных в этом выпуске.

Яшкевич Иван Адамович (р. 1923) — педагог, композитор, исполнитель. В 1949 г. окончил Киевскую консерваторию по классу баяна М. М. Гелиса. С 1950 г. — преподаватель Киевской консерватории по классу баяна (с 1973 г. — доцент). Автор многочисленных оригинальных произведений для баяна, а также концертных обработок и транскрипций произведений классики.

Журбин Александр Борисович (р. 1945) — композитор. В 1969 г. окончил ГМПИ им. Гнесиных по композиции у Н. И. Пейко, а в 1973 г. — как музыковед аспирантуру при Ленинградской консерватории у Ю. Г. Кона. Член Союза композиторов с 1970 г. Активно работает в разных жанрах. Автор 5 опер (в том числе первой советской рок-оперы «Орфей и Эвридика»), 3 балетов, 15 музыкальных комедий, симфонической, камерно-инструментальной и хоровой музыки. Кроме того, композитором написаны большое количество эстрадных песен и музыка к 35 кинофильмам. Для реализации своих замыслов Журбин нередко использует сочетания различных стилистических пластов.

Шишаков Юрий Николаевич (р. 1925 г.) — композитор, педагог. В 1948 г. окончил ГМПИ им. Гнесиных (с 1966 по 1974 гг. — зав. кафедрой народных инструментов; с 1977 г. — профессор). Член Союза композиторов СССР с 1949 г., заслуженный деятель искусств РСФСР (1971). Автор оратории «Песни села Шушенского», двух симфоний, а также многочисленных произведений для оркестра русских народных инструментов, ансамблей и отдельных инструментов. Кроме того, Ю. Н. Шишаков является автором ряда методических трудов, в том числе, учебника по инструментовке для русского народного оркестра. Творчество Ю. Н. Шишакова — существенный вклад в развитие оркестрового и сольного народно-инструментального искусства.

Чайкин Николай Яковлевич (р. 1915) — композитор, педагог. Окончил историко-теоретический факультет Киевской консерватории (1940; класс композиции Л. Н. Ревуцкого, Б. С. Косенко, Б. Н. Лятошинского, класс специального фортепиано А. Н. Луфера). С 1951 по 1964 гг. преподавал в ГМПИ им. Гнесиных на факультете народных инструментов, с 1964 г. — в Горьковской консерватории (с 1972 г. — профессор). Член Союза композиторов СССР с 1944 г. Заслуженный деятель искусств РСФСР (1980). Автор многочисленных произведений для оркестров — симфонического, русского народного, духового, эстрадного; для хора, разнообразных ансамблей и отдельных инструментов. Является также автором учебного пособия «Курс чтения партитур для оркестра русских народных инструментов». Произведения Н. Чайкина для баяна стали важнейшей вехой в истории баянного исполнительства. «Украинская сюита» была обязательным произведением на Международном конкурсе «Кубок мира» в г. Брюгге (Бельгия, 1971 г.).

Лондонов Петр Петрович (1928—1981) — композитор. Окончил Московскую консерваторию по классу композиции Е. И. Месснера. На протяжении многих лет заведовал редакцией литературы для народных инструментов издательства «Советский композитор». Член Союза композиторов с 1971 г. Заслуженный деятель искусств РСФСР (1978). Автор произведений для оркестра русских народных инструментов, хора, фортепиано. Для баяна написаны: Концерт с оркестром русских народных ин-струментов, Соната, полифонические пьесы, этюды, обработки народных песен и танцев. Соната для баяна исполнялась в качестве обязательного произведения на I Всероссийском конкурсе исполнителей на народных инструментах в 1972 г. в г. Москве.

Золотарев Владислав Андреевич (1942—1975) — композитор. Окончил Магаданское музыкальное училище (1968; класс баяна Н. А. Лесного). В 1968—1969 гг. консультировался по композиции у Р. К. Щедрина. В 1971—1972 гг. учился в Московской консерватории (класс композиции Т. Н. Хренникова). Автор оратории «Памятник революции», произведений для симфонического, камерного оркестров, струнных квартетов, вокальных сочинений. Баянное творчество Вл. Золотарева — значительный вклад в развитие оригинальной литературы для готово-выборного многотембрового баяна.

FOREWORD

Part Six of the "Anthology of Compositions for Button Accordion" contains selections from Soviet accordion music of the sixties and early seventies. In those years, both types of button accordion were, on nearly equal grounds, partaking in this country's musical life — the modern fixed-and-freebass instrument, capable of efficiently reflecting what was "in the air", that is to say, what can be described as new modes of thinking in terms of music, and the conventional fixed-bass accordion, which was far from yielding to its rival.

Apart from original compositions, the volume includes some adaptations, viz., Sergei Rakhmaninov's and Johann Strauss' instrumental pieces as transcribed by Ivan Yashkevich, a noted accordionist and teacher. These concert transcriptions enjoy great popularity, which is accounted for, in the first place, by the universally recognized aesthetic merits of the originals themselves and, secondly, by the transcriber's resourcefulness in contrapuntal writing, ornamentation, etc., in other words, by his proficiency in textural matters.

All the compositions and transcriptions selected for the present publication have had an important part to play both in the development of our accordionists' technique and in the cultivation of their artistic imaginativeness. Indispensable to the purposes of pedagogics and concert practice, they have also been constitutive of the repertoire of musical competitions — some of them are known to have been written expressly for definite contests of young accordionists (by way of a compulsory item on the programme).

Here is some information about the composers: —

Yashkevich, Ivan Adamovich (b. 1923), teacher, composer, concert performer. Graduated from the class of M. M. Gelis (button accordion) at the Kiev Conservatoire in 1949. Since 1950, Instructor thereat (since 1973, Assistant Professor). — Numerous originals and transcriptions for button accordion.

Zhurbin, Alexander Borisovich (b. 1945), composer. Graduated from the class of N. I. Peiko (composition) at the Gnesins Institute of Music, Moscow, in 1969; completed a postgraduate course in musicology (under Yu. G. Kon) at the Leningrad Conservatoire in 1973. Member of the USSR Composers Union (since 1970). — 5 operas (among them the first Soviet rock opera, Orpheus and Eurydice), 3 ballets, 15 musical comedies, symphonic, chamber and choral music; numerous pop songs; 35 film scores. — He often makes use of what is known as polystylistics.

Shishakow, Yuri Nikolayevich (b. 1925), composer, teacher. Graduated from the class of M. F. Gnesin (composition) at the Gnesins Institute of Music, Moscow, in 1948. Since 1948, Lecturer (in instrumentation and realization of open score) thereat (from 1966 to 1974, head of the Department of Folk Instruments; since 1977, Professor). Member of the USSR Composers Union (since 1949). Honoured Master of the Arts of the Russian Federation (1971). — An oratorio (Songs of the Village of Shushenskoye), 2 symphonies, ensemble and solo compositions for Russian folk instruments. Pedagogical writings; "A Course in Instrumentation for Russian Folk Instruments Orchestra". — He made a valuable contribution to the cause of building up the repertoire of Russian folk instruments orchestras, and to that of solo performers on the instruments of the kind.

Chaikin, Nikolai Yakovlevich (b. 1915), composer, teacher. Graduated from the Kiev Conservatoire (in musicology) in 1940; in his student days, he was also studying composition (under L. N. Revutsky, B. S. Kosenko, B. N. Lyatoshinsky) and piano playing (under A. N. Lufer). From 1951 to 1964, Instructor at the Department of Folk Instruments of the Gnesins Institute of Music, Moscow. Since 1964, on the staff of the Gorky Conservatoire (since 1972, Professor). Member of the USSR Composers Union (since 1944). Honoured Master of the Arts of the Russian Federation (1980). — Numerous compositions for symphony orchestra, Russian folk instruments orchestra, brass band, light orchestra; choral and chamber music; solo compositions for various instruments. "A Course in Score Playing (Russian Folk Instruments Orchestra)". — His accordion compositions constitute a pivotal chapter in the history of the instrument's music. — The Ukrainian Suite was a compulsory item on the programme of the "World Cup" competition in Brugge (Bruges), Belgium, 1971.

Londonov, Pyotr Petrovich (1928-81), composer. Graduated from the class of Ye. I. Messner (composition) at the Moscow Conservatoire. For years, in charge of editions for folk instruments at the Sovetsky Kompozitor publishing house, Moscow. Member of the USSR Composers Union (since 1971). Honoured Master of the Arts of the Russian Federation (1978). — Orchestral (Russian folk instruments), choral, piano music. For button accordion: Concerto (accordion and Russian folk instruments orchestra), Sonata, contrapuntal compositions, studies, arrangements of folk songs and dances. — As to his Sonata for button accordion, it was a compulsory item on the programme of the 1st National Competition of Performing Musicians (Folk Instruments) in Moscow, 1972.

Zolotaryov, Vladislav Andreyevich (1942-75), composer. Graduated from the class of N. A. Lesnoi (button accordion) at the Magadan Secondary School of Music in 1968. Thereupon, he was studying composition under R. K. Shchedrin (by way of consultation, 1968-69) and under T. N. Khrennikov (at the Moscow Conservatoire, 1971-72). — An oratorio (Monument to the Revolution); compositions for symphony orchestra and for chamber orchestra; string quartets; vocal music. — His accordion works are justly considered exceptionally important factors in the making of a repertory of original compositions for the multitimbral fixed-and-freebass button-key accordion.
